

C of this Article) shall serve consecutive terms of office as a Trustee. Each Trustee shall serve until his term expires and his successor is elected and qualified or until the earlier vacation of his office pursuant to Section C of this Article.

C. Vacancies; Removal.

The office of a Trustee shall be deemed vacant upon the death, removal or resignation of said Trustee or at such time as said Trustee no longer meets the qualifications necessary to hold such office specified in Section A of this Article. Any Trustee may be removed from office, with or without cause, and the vacancy created thereby filled, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the membership at a special meeting of Members called for such purpose. Any Trustee may resign at any meeting of the Board of Trustees, which shall be entered on the minutes of such meeting, or at any other time by giving written notice to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall appoint an interim Trustee to fill any vacancy created by the removal of a Trustee which is not filled at the time of such removal by the Membership or any other vacancy as promptly as is reasonable by the vote of a majority of the remaining Trustees then in office. Such interim Trustee shall serve until the next succeeding Annual Meeting of Members, at which, if any of the term respecting such vacancy remains unexpired, a successor Trustee shall be nominated and elected as hereinbefore provided to serve such remainder. The Trustee appointed by the Trustees to serve the interim period until such Annual Meeting may be elected to complete the term respecting such vacancy, and a Trustee elected by the Members to complete a term respecting a vacancy may be elected by the Members to a regular term of office as Trustee upon the expiration of his term as a successor Trustee. If no Trustees remain, the Members shall elect an entire Board of five (5) Trustees in the same manner as was done at the Initial Annual Meeting at a meeting called for that purpose. During any period that such vacancy exists, the remaining Trustees shall continue to act with the powers and authority of the full Board of Trustees.

D. Compensation Of Trustees.

No Trustee shall be entitled to, or shall receive, any compensation for attendance at meetings of the Board of Trustees or for other services rendered to the Association
